KwaZulu-Natal South Africa

Access

SOUTH AFRICA'S SPORTING & EVENT CAPITAL - is just over an hour's flight from Johannesburg and two hour's flight from Cape Town. Durban International Airport supports a number of international airlines, including South African Airways, British Airways, Singapore Airlines, Air Mauritius and now Emirates.

Destination Overview

Durban, a cosmopolitan city of 3million people in the province of KwaZulu Natal, is the gateway to the rich culture, history and attractions of the legendary Zulu Warrior Kingdom, the World Heritage Drakensberg Mountains and several of South Africa's most beautiful wildlife parks. It's a major tourist destination primarily because of its year-round warm sub-tropical climate and glorious beaches that averages an astonishing 320 sunshine days per year.
